SUMMER 2010

Time to beat the heat down at the STORM! This should be very easy for everyone now that school is out. If you want the most laser tag for your money you NEED a monthly pass. This is only available to members and for only $100 you can play laser tag every day for a whole month. There is no better discount than that and it works during the Fire Til You Tire and Midnight Madness Specials!

The current league in progress is almost into the playoff series. Only a few more weeks and the sign up sheet for the next season will be out on the front counter. See inside for details on the previous season.

This year's National Tournament will be held at the resurrected Jester's Court arena in Warren, Ohio. It is a private arena not open to the public, and is home to the 2-time National Champs "Oblivion". Everyone is welcome to participate in this grand event, and you can be sure that many Pittsburgh teams will be attending including the defending 2009 National Champs, "Dump Shuttle". ## Regional Tournaments

April's journey to Austintown, Ohio was very exciting. The arena was an excellent design, and was almost entirely set up for us when we arrived. All of the players pitched in to help get us going on time, and we were able to add on a short double elimination to the end of the tournament. Team "Jester's Court" from Ohio won in the end, after several games with under 5 points deciding the winner.

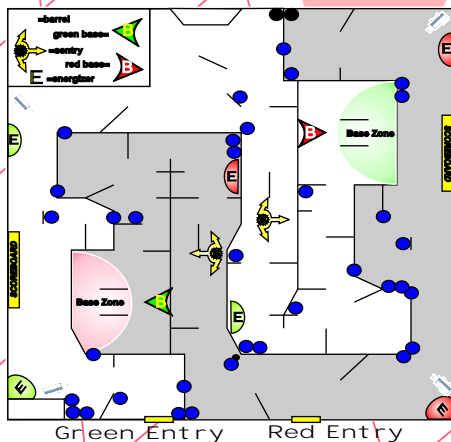

Ending the season with the same style tournament, only here at home on a brand new arena setup, our 2009-2010 Regional Championship was held on May 15th. Several powerhouse teams gave a strong showing of skill, but in the end team "Nuclear Blast" overcame the odds of having the "bad side" and defeated their strongest rivals, "Implosion". Congrats to our new Regional Champs!

Regional Championships

Meet Your Heroes

The results are in! The few hundred people who voted for this season's arena have made their voices heard. ARENA #2 was elected to be LSP's next design for the summer of 2010. Designed by Zalgax, it was constructed shortly before the Regional Championship tournament so that the playing field would be even for everyone. Have you seen it yet? Get down here!!

previous league season

This season was incredibly exciting due to the well-balanced nature of our 4 teams. After a few setbacks with players not showing up, we implemented replacements and the season was great. In the end it was an epic battle between "Brutal" and "Dubious" for the title. In a grueling stretch of 4 straight games, "Brutal" defeated "Dubious" 3 games in a row, only to be brought down in the end by a very narrow margin. Congrats to the winners, "Dubious"!
